

An Invitation

The Belmont Historical Society
Invites you to join them

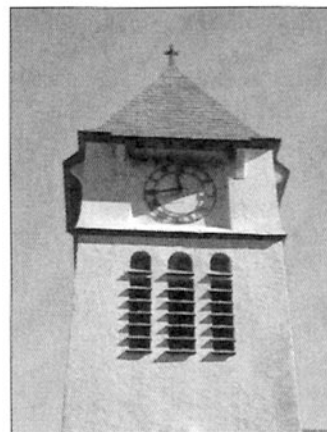

Event: Walking Tour of Belmont

Time: 2:00 to 4:00 pm

Date: Saturday November 5, 2016

Place: Meet at “the delta” in Belmont Center

Come join members and friends of the Belmont Historical Society as they visit both little known and well known historic sites in and around Belmont Center. This guided tour will highlight monuments, public buildings, and familiar landmarks to explore their historic significance to the local community.

Come learn the answers to questions like: Where did these cannons come from? What is the significance of the date 1884 carved in the watering trough? Who is responsible for this timepiece? Come find out many other fascinating facts about your hometown. The walk will cover sites along the route between the delta in Belmont center and Wellington Hill Station where refreshments will be served.
